Federal Advocacy: House Bill Introduced in 117th Congress

The Medicare bill has been introduced in Congress by Rep. Mike Thompson (D-CA): H.R.432 - To amend title XVIII of the Social Security Act to provide for the coverage of marriage and family therapist services and mental health counselor services under part B of the Medicare program, and for other purposes. Once the bill is introduced in the Senate look for a grassroots advocacy campaign now being formed by us and our coalitions.
