AMHCA News Updates

AMHCA Launches New Resource Site for COVID-19

We are grateful for all that you -- AMHCA members -- and our partners are doing on the ground to support the health, safety, and well-being of people with mental health conditions. The AMHCA team is so proud to be working for you knowing during this crisis, as you are on the frontlines providing critically important treatments and services to vulnerable Americans who suffer from an array of conditions such as depressive, anxiety, panic, PTSD, trauma-related, and other mental health disorders. We will continue to update our site with information as soon as we get it. Please also look for a new Coronavirus-edition of our newsletter that is coming out every two weeks with the latest updates.

2020 Conference Updates

Same great content, new location = Online!

We at AMHCA have made the difficult decision to pivot from our planned in-person event in Las Vegas to a virtual event via Zoom.

Same great content, new location.

While we hate that we can't be physically together for this year's signature event, we will be together in some form.

We will still be energized, empowered and unified and ready to shape the future of the mental health profession.

There is no stopping us!

We hope you will join us in putting on a great virtual conference that can energize, empower, and unify our profession.

Schedule Posted

Publications

Journal of Mental Health Counseling: Call for Submission - Special Issue on Policies and Practice

The Journal of Mental Health Counseling is seeking manuscripts for a special issue on how public policies, including national/state laws, competencies, and ethical standards, relate to or impact professional practice. We welcome proposal submissions for both empirical and non-empirical (e.g., conceptual, review) manuscripts. Please consider submitting a proposal! For questions, contact the JMHC editor, Ingrid Weigold, at editorjmhc@amhca.org.

2020 AMHCA Standards for the Practice of Clinical Mental Health Counseling

The 'AMHCA Standards' bridge professional expectations with clinical practice. "AMHCA Standards" is a living document that is updated on a continuing basis by AMHCA's Advancement for Clinical Practice Committee to meet the needs of the public and the profession. In addition to standards of practice, it includes training and supervision standards. Download the revised 2020 edition for free at AMHCA.org.

2020 AMHCA Code of Ethics

The "AMHCA Code" is an essential component of practicing clinical mental health counseling with professionalism and integrity. While ethical guidance for the practice of clinical mental health counseling is its primary purpose, it is also intended to prompt pondering about ethical thinking and practice. Download the revised 2020 edition and see our other great ethics resources for free at AMHCA.org.

Website Construction: New 'Career Development' and 'Becoming Essential' Sections

In an effort to guide counselors in their career AMHCA has developed a roadmap for professional development to enable each individual to reach the highest standards of professional expertise. This step-by-step approach to career advancement is crucial to the profession of the profession.

Licensed Clinical Mental Health Counselors (LCMHCs) are Primary Health Care Providers. We are uniquely educated and licensed in ways that make us distinct from the other mental health professions.

Feel free to reach out to Whitney Meyerhoeffer (wmeyerhoeffer@amhca.org) at AMHCA if you have any questions or concerns.

Take a moment to check out AMHCA.org's new 'Career Development' and 'Becoming Essential' sections.
